

SUNDAY SCHOOL RULES & CONSEQUENCES

"For God is not a God of disorder, but of peace, as in all the meetings of God's holy people." 1 Corinthians 14:33

Please return signed form to your class servant by: Sunday, October 7, 2018.

RULES:

1. BE Respectful
- respect servants, classmates, and yourself
2. BE Responsible
- respect God's house and church property
3. BE Polite
- use good manners, say "Please" and "Thank You"
4. BE Honest
- always tell the truth
5. BE Safe
- no running, keep hands and feet to yourself at all times
6. NO Interrupting
- be patient and don't interrupt others when they are speaking, raise your hand
7. NO Fighting or Unkind / Bad Language
8. NO Cell Phones
- do not use cell phones during class, unless a servant gives you permission

CONSEQUENCES:

- 1) First Offense - Verbal warning to stop the specific disruptive behavior
- 2) Second Offense - Removed from the classroom for 5 mins and spoken to by a servant privately
- 3) Third Offense - Removed from classroom, immediately meet with a service coordinator (Sami Hage or John Melek), and call to the parents by the service coordinator
- 4) Parent Required to Attend Class - If a second meeting with a service coordinator is required, the service coordinator will inform the family that the child or youth will not be able to return to the class unless their parent attends the next class with them. If behavior is consistently a problem, the service coordinator will require a parent to attend with their child until behavior has been corrected.
- 5) Damaging or Destroying Church Property - If at any time, a child or youth is found damaging or destroying any church property, parents will be responsible for paying for the repair or replacement of the damaged or destroyed property.

I agree to all the guidelines above.
